Who Are The Friends?

The Friends of the Rockville Library (FOTRL) established in 1999, is a nonprofit 501(c)(3) volunteer organization which provides support for the Cochrane-Rockville Public Library's improvement. The primary fund raiser of the Friends is an annual book sale of donated books. Proceeds are used to purchase equipment and materials as well as sponsor library programs such as an armchair traveler series, movie and dinner nights, a youth art month reception, summer reading program, a sit 'n' stitch group, various performances, annual poetry celebration and other library events.

Join the Friends or donate to the library today.

Thank you!

Your contributions to the Friends are tax-deductible in accordance with IRS regulations.

Friends of the Rockville Library

Why the Friends are important

The Friends of the Rockville Library exists to promote a good working relationship between the Cochrane-Rockville Branch of the Pamunkey Regional Library system and Hanover County and its citizens. The Friends actively promote the functions, resources, services and needs of the library, and strive to continually extend and improve library resources and services.

How Friends Help the Library

The Friends of the Rockville Library have been providing both financial support and sponsorship of programs for the Library for many years.

Their contributions include:

- ◆ Furniture, equipment and needed supplies not provided by the Pamunkey Regional Library system.
- ◆ Flowers and plants to enhance the patio area.
- ◆ Volunteers to help with programs and events.

How you can become a Friend of the Rockville Library

The expanded Cochrane-Rockville Branch Library opened to the public in October 2005.

It's as simple as making a monetary contribution. Choose a giving level on the membership form, make your generous donation and give it to a Friends member or leave it at the Circulation Desk. You'll feel great knowing that your contribution will help sustain a vital community resource—the Cochrane-Rockville Library.

Give the gift of yourself—volunteer with the Friends of the Rockville Library

A 2007 Concert Ballet of Virginia performance sponsored by the Friends drew over 125 people to the Cochrane-Rockville Library.

Of course, it's not all just dollars and cents. The gift that makes the greatest impact to your community is the gift of your time. The level of your commitment is up to you. Attend our quarterly board meetings, share your ideas, assist with our book sales. Any level of involvement is welcome. Please join us in supporting our local library.
